Hello

I'm Mariah - I'm from Atlanta and a total city girl. I love the lake, my dog is my best friend, I love to travel, love all things fashion & beauty and cheer! You'll often find me doing a back flip for no real reason. I want to share about products and brands that I genuinely love. And yes - I do TikTok dances & lip sync videos too because - why not - I'm a teenager!

Mariah's Favorites

I love creating content.... whether that's vlogging while I get ready, doing video hauls after I shop, sharing my fit of the day or creating tutorials for my followers. I began acting & modeling in national campaigns before I could walk & still love the camera! And I'm in audio-video class at school for content creation. Sometimes, I add fun dancing & advanced tumbling into some of my videos to increase visibility & engagement so... let's get creative utilizing my skills to share your company/products.

FIRST & FOREMOST, THANK YOU!

When you hire me to work with your brand, you are supporting a young female entrepreneur and giving me the opportunity to continue to build my brand and gain work experience while doing what I absolutely LOVE to do! And you're helping me pay for my Jeep Wrangler and most importantly, you're helping me chase my dream of going to college because I'm saving up to be able to afford to go. I want to earn degrees in Communication Studies & Journalism and minor in marketing. You hiring me makes a big difference in my life. So thank you for considering me as an influencer partner for your company. I promise not to let you down and hope to form a long-term working relationship with you.

Sincerely,
Mariah Snare
