Mary was our buying agent, and she was amazing! Mary was always available to answer any questions or concerns. She was very mindful of our needs and priorities when we were looking for a houses. She never gave up on us even when I almost lost a hope to get a house.

She was very motivative and always said that we will find the right one. It was a pleasure to work with her.

Mary is nothing short of AMAZING! From our first phone call with her, we knew she was the realtor for us! In February 2023, my fiancé and I were just starting our journey to find our forever home and Mary was there for us every step of the way. Her knowledge and expertise are top notch! She guided us through this process with ease and there was never any pressure. Mary was always available to answer all of our questions and went above and beyond for us! We cannot say enough great things about her.

Mary was a dream to work with! Always responsive, kept me updated, was knowledgeable, and worked to get the house sold! Our sale was not an easy one due to personal issues and Mary remained fair, professional, and compassionate throughout the whole experience. Mary brought her expertise in tough sales with her and did not hesitate to make this as smooth as possible.

I would recommend Mary to anyone who is in need of a realtor to help them navigate the process of buying or selling a home.

We bought our home when the housing market was at it's busiest. Mary made a potentially stressful home buying process manageable. Mary's knowledge about a variety of communities and her ability to listen to and understand our home needs helped us narrow down our search so that we could find what we really wanted. We were able to reach Mary by phone and email at various times throughout the day, and she was able to work around my busy work schedule. We searched for our home for a year, and there were times when I felt like we would never get a house. Mary's perseverance and reassurance that we would find the right one kept me going. Once our offer was accepted, Mary continued to support us throughout the process.

Our successful home buying process was clearly the outcome of Mary's hard work and dedication. If you are looking for a realtor who is a genuinely good person and trustworthy, Mary is it.

Mary is the best, most knowledgeable agent by far. She takes care of things and provides for a seamless transaction. Any question I presented to transactions, she already was working on that item or had it completed! WOW! is all I can say. This past year I've completed some challenging transactions, and all have been done with complete satisfaction. Buying or Selling, she gets the job done, hands down.
